* TRANSPORTATION FROM THE AIRPORT*

SHUTTLE SERVICE

SuperShuttle

http://www.supershuttle.com/Locations/DENBoulderDIAExpressAirportShuttle.aspx

The shuttle runs typically every hour between DIA and Boulder, making stops at various Boulder hotels and other sites. For the return trip to the airport after the workshop, call them directly for pick-up. Their phone number is 303-227-0000 or click on their website. The tickets can be bought at their website or directly at the airport at the SuperShuttle counter. Use the code "NCAR1" for a $5 discount. The shuttle driver cannot accept cash.

NCAR and the Millennium Hotel are south of Jay Road.

Green Ride

Green Ride Boulder is focused on resource sustainability and minimal environmental impact. A reservation is required by calling +1 303 997 0238 or you may book online at www.greenrideboulder.com.

RTD Public Bus

SkyRide's air conditioned buses have plush, adjustable seating and ample luggage storage; drivers take your bags at curbside and return them to you at your destination. This service of the Regional Transportation District (RTD) runs hourly between roughly 6:00 a.m. and midnight; travel time to Boulder is approximately 55-75 minutes, depending on time of day and weather. http://www.rtd-denver.com/skyride.shtml

Taxi Cabs

Boulder Yellow Cab: 303.777.7777

Metro Taxi Denver: 303.666.6666

TRANSPORTATION TO WORKSHOP

Daily bus transportation from the Millennium Hotel to the workshop and back will be provided. If you are staying at a different hotel within walking distance of the Millennium, please feel free to use the bus for transportation to/from the workshop. The bus schedule is in the agenda.

LOCATION OF WORKSHOP

1850 Table Mesa Drive
PLEASE NOTE: The workshop will be held in the Fleischmann Building located to the north of Mesa Lab's parking lot (on the left when driving in) See attached map.

FOOD

There are no restaurants nearby so it will be more convenient to eat at the cafeteria or bring your lunch. The cafeteria will take cash only, no credit cards, checks or traveler cheques. From the hotel the closest supermarkets are Safeway and Whole foods although there are plenty of eateries nearby (http://www.goldenbufflodge.com/attractions.html)

THINGS TO DO IN BOULDER

Here is a website of things to do in Boulder. Be sure to bring comfortable walking shoes, plenty of water, and appropriate clothing as the nights can be chilly. It is easy to get dehydrated. Symptoms are headache and fatigue. Drink plenty of water, especially if you've come from sea level. In Spring Denver enjoys low relative humidity, making for beautiful, sun-filled days and cool, comfortable evenings.

What is Boulder B-cycle?
Boulder B-cycle is our community's nonprofit bike-sharing system. B-cycles are magic bikes that are always ready to ride, where and when you need them. When you want to cruise downtown, to the 29th St Mall, or take a refreshing spin along Boulder Creek Path, B-cycles are there for you.

While you’re attending a conference at UCAR, take advantage of a special $10 7-day Boulder B-cycle access pass! With this access pass you may take an unlimited number of B-cycle trips, although make sure to keep each trip under one hour to avoid usage fees.

Why use Boulder B-cycle?
System access has lots of benefits, including:
- A fleet of more than 100 shiny red bikes at 15 (and counting) stations across Boulder
- Unlimited free rides, as long as each trip is less than 60 minutes
- The knowledge that you’re helping to save the planet and using a truly renewable resource—pedal power!

Sign up (you may do this any time before or during the conference)
- Go to boulderbicycle.com and click Join Now.
- Select 7-day membership, enter promotion code UCARCONF (case-sensitive).
- Ensure that your checkout total is $10+tax before finishing.

Ride (your 7-day access period begins the first time you check out a B-cycle)
- Visit any Boulder B-cycle station with the credit card used for your pass purchase.
- Select “No” to purchasing 24-hour access, and insert your credit card to check out a bike!
